October 1, 1932 - January 4, 2019

Lola Breier, 86, of Turlock, CA, passed away surrounded by her family on Jan. 4, 2019. Lola was born in Coweta, OK to Lunda and Delpha Easley. In 1942, she moved to California, settling down in Dinuba. There she helped take care of her family. Lola was a devoted housewife. She loved to bake, especially her pies, and play her guitar. In 1968, she and her husband bought a farm in Turlock. They raised animals, nurtured gardens and cultivated orchards. She loved it there and never wanted to move. Lola was granted her wish. On Friday, January 4th, she suffered a brain bleed at her home and was rushed to Emanuel Medical Center, where hours later she passed away peacefully, surrounded by her loved ones.
