“ Every tear I cried told a story and everyone of them spoke your name. You told me not to cry while you were gone you told me to stay strong. You're not really gone.

How can I be strong little mom, your gone, how do we all just move on how do we pick up our lives and go on, now that your gone

I'm never going to be completely gone and your lives will go on, I will finally live my life now that the pain is gone. I will fly high in the sky to see your pop and look into his eyes that's when I will know I'm finally home and I will have no tears left in my eyes....

Today we all will tell a story or two with her tears in our eyes knowing little mom made it to the other side

I love & miss you so much little mom!!!

“ Lucy...

*Another beautiful soul gone today.
Gone, but not forgotten...
Another sweet person went away
Another day filled with tears.
Memories are breaking me...
Another day that stays for years.
Another star in the sky.
In our hearts forever...
Another heartbreaking goodbye*
