

Madelynn Marie Lourenco

June 3, 2008 - December 15, 2024

Madelynn Marie Lourenco was born June 3, 2008 in Modesto, California. Mady Marie was the light of our family's lives. Her smile radiated miles and her giggle was the most contagious and joyous sound you could imagine. She could always be found surrounded by her cousins and friends telling jokes, laughing, or retelling silly stories. If there was a social event or gathering, Mady was there. If a friend or family needed a helping hand, a hug, or smile, she was there wholeheartedly. Babysitting was her side hustle, she quickly became the church community's go to babysitter. Kids loved her and parents trusted her. Her faith played a big role in her life. She spent her childhood attending Vacation Bible School and later volunteering as a youth leader. She was involved in various clubs and activities including Pitman FFA and track and field. It's impossible to imagine a world without our Mady girl.

She leaves behind many broken hearts but especially those of her grandparents Francisco and Mary Lourenco; Dennis and Linda McClelland; her aunts and uncles Frank and Nancy Lourenco, Elizabeth and Jeffrey Severson, Jason and Trish McClelland; and cousins Ethan, Erica and Leah Lourenco, (Sienna) Liam and Lucianna Severson, and Rosemary and Julian McClelland. May she rest peacefully in the arms of Jesus and her beloved mother and father.

“ This family was so beautiful. So kind, so generous, and so loving. Our church community will forever be heartbroken over the tremendous loss of Mady and her wonderful parents. May God welcome them into his kingdom; and may he comfort those who have been left behind.
