

Madison Taylor Armendariz

April 21, 1998 - September 14, 2019

Maddie quietly slipped into the loving arms of Jesus early Saturday morning September 14th at UCSF Benioff Children's Hospital in San Francisco from a rare form of cancer. Maddie had a sweet spirit and an engaging smile which she freely shared with everyone. Maddie had a very strong faith in her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. She shared that faith with whomever she came into contact through all her words and actions. Maddie is survived by her mother Jenny and step-father Brian Kelley, her brothers Tyler Armendariz and Kyle Clark, sisters Kaitlyn and Jessica Armendariz, Carllie Pointer, Britney Clark, Stevi, Taylor, Lexi and Jasmine Kelley, nephews Rickie Kelley and Kayden Clark, niece Kinly Clark, grandparents Bill and Cheryl DeHart and Delia Richina, great-grandmother Olive LaViolette, numerous aunts and uncles, cousins, countless lifelong friends and her biological father Robert Armendariz. There will be a Celebration of Life service for Maddie on October 5, 2019 at 11:00 a.m. at: Turlock Covenant Church (now known as Hope Church) 316 S. Laurel Street Turlock, CA 95380. A time of fellowship will follow the service in Fellowship Hall. In lieu of flowers, Maddie would appreciate your donations to: Family House 540 Mission Bay Blvd North San Francisco, CA 94158

Previous Events

Celebration of Life

OCT 5. 11:00 AM - 12:00 PM (PT)

Turlock Covenant Church
316 So. Laurel
Turlock, CA 95380

Tribute Wall

“ Madison Taylor Armendariz

January 28, 2023 at 09:01 AM

“ Maddie, such a kind, sweet soul. I remember hanging out in Copperopolis, she and her siblings singing all their favorite Pentatonix songs and singing with all their hearts. I'm so happy to have known her.

Jenny, my deepest condolences to you and your family. I'll keep you in my thoughts and prayers.

Katt Strait - October 02, 2019 at 09:12 PM