Maria Fernanda Azevedo was born on December 30, 1955 in Ribeira Seca, Sao Jorge, Azores. At the age of 69, she passed away on November 11, 2025, in Turlock, California.

In December of 1978, Maria and her husband, Manuel Azevedo, bravely immigrated to the United States with hopes and dreams of creating a better life and future for their family which was a sacrifice made out of love and determination. Maria deeply cherished her family, dedicating much of her time to traveling and creating memorable experiences with her husband, children and grandchildren. Her passion for family gatherings filled her life with joy and laughter, leaving a legacy of love and cherished memories.

Maria is survived by her devoted husband, Manuel Azevedo, whom she married on December 18, 1975, in her hometown of Ribeira Seca. She leaves behind a loving family, including her son, Michael Azevedo (Spouse: Isabel); daughter, Malinda Simao (Spouse: Antonio); and grandchildren, Matthew
