“Maria was such a special lady. She did everything through the eyes and hearts of her family. She loved to tell stories and despite what she was going through, her eyes lit up when she spoke of her husband, children and grandkids. Always quick to give us a hug, she was loving and kind and always had a smile on her face no matter anything!!! A natural storyteller, she started her cuentos with “Oiga, mire,” and I knew it was going to be interesting and maybe funny. We loved seeing her and Jose always, and will remember her this way! Such a great human being. ❤️
