

Marian L. Mirabile

May 25, 1936 - August 27, 2022

On the evening of August 27, 2022 in Turlock, CA, Marian Louise Mirabile passed away peacefully and went home to be with her Heavenly Father at 86 years old. She was born May 25, 1936 at St. Mary's Hospital in Modesto, CA. She graduated from Hughson High School in 1955. She spent her young adult life moving about the country as a military wife with first husband and daughter Selene. Her favorite memories to share of those years spent next to the crystal blue ocean of Waimea Bay in Hawaii. When Marian returned to the Turlock area in her 30's, she attended Modesto Business College and worked for Emanuel Medical Center as an Admissions Clerk for over 20 years.

Marian was a loving wife, sister, mother, aunt, grandmother and great-grandmother. Her joys in life included spending precious time with her family, taking day trips to Black Oak Casino, tending to her beautiful flowers in her yard and trips to the California Coast with her husband Tony. She loved all things purple and anything with chocolate in it. She was known for her kind heart, giving spirit, witty and sometimes sassy sense of humor that will be dearly missed by all she touched.

Marian is survived by her husband Tony Mirabile, daughter Selene McDaniel (Jerry), stepdaughter Maria Rameno (Ceaser), her two siblings: Mildred Handle and Raymond Nichols, four grandchildren: Kristin Flake, Tracy Parreira, Nathan Lewis, Jesse McDaniel, five step-grandchildren: Ben and Alex McDaniel, Elias, Rene and Andi Rameno, and nine great grandchildren: Denelle and Madison Flake, Hannah and Cody Parreira, Audri McDaniel, Ashton and Jade Caetano, Barrett and Dakota Lewis.

Marian was preceded in death by her wonderful father Charles Nichols, older brother Wilton Nichols and older sisters Charlotte Belt and Juanita Hudson.
