“ Oh, my Marie, how much I loved you. Thank you for being my first employer and becoming a dear friend. You taught me so much about acceptance and kindness. You told me to never be embarrassed about being a secretary because "what would these people do if they didn't have you to keep things organized". I've been searching for another employer just like you. But I guess God made only one perfect boss: you. I love you, Marie, and I will miss you.

“ Dear Bud and Cousins, I'm so sorry for your loss. I always admired Marie for many reasons. She was strong, independent, fearless, yet kind, gentle and loving. She always had a beautiful smile to go along with her positive outlook on life. When she was around everyone was happy. Although the distance separated us from spending much time together, she always showed so much interest in what was going on in each of our lives. She will truly be missed!
