

Marshall David Benjamin

December 31, 1933 - December 28, 2025

Marshall Benjamin passed away on December 28, 2025 following a brief illness. He was 3 days shy of his 92nd birthday. Marshall was born in New Britain, Connecticut on December 31, 1933 and moved to Turlock in 1948. He graduated from Turlock High School in 1952 and attended Modesto Junior College until enlisting in the U.S. Air Force.

Marshall served with the 6200th Air Police Squadron at Clark Air Force Base in the Philippines during the Korean War. He married Lula Belle Varner on March 2, 1958 and had one daughter. In 1960, Marsh started working part-time at Inland Wholesale Hardware and worked his way up to the position of General Manager.

Marsh was a long-time member of the First Presbyterian Church in Turlock and enjoyed motorcycles and muscle cars, owning several over the years.

Marshall is survived by his daughter, Sheila McBride; grandson, Jesse James Silva, both of Turlock, and several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his wife, Lula Benjamin; grandson, Michael McBride; and son-in-law, D. Mike McBride.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made to your favorite animal shelter or rescue or to an Ovarian Cancer Research facility.

“ Our condolences to the Benjamin family. I met Marshall in 1989 while working at Valley Distributors, Inc. Marshall was a well-kept, quiet guy and a lot of fun to be around. I celebrated my 21st birthday with my boss Danny Mendoza and Marshall! Thank you for the memories and it was certainly a pleasure to do business with you Marshall. Godspeed to you and peace to your memory. - Todd Anderson, Inland Wholesale former board member and customer.
