“ I have known Marvin for most of my adult life. Though we lost touch several years ago. He was the kindest, most loyal, shy, decent, and fun loving men I have ever known. He could make you laugh when nothing else did. He taught me a great deal about so many things. He was there for my son and me anytime I needed some one. You could tell the kind of man he was simply by knowing his family and friends (most of which he has known all his life). It is an honor to have known him and I will never forget him. My condolences to his family and friends. He is missed daily.
