“ Doug and I have many good memories of time spend with Max and Harold and all the Lovell kids. She was a second Mom to our son John. Still laugh about one night when John was little and we were at the table and he was shaking his head. Doug said why are you shaking your head and he said "Maxine told me I had rocks in my head" and I don't think I do.

We moved to Turlock the same year as the Lovell's. 1961 and we met shortly after think it was at Divine Gardens.

Sorry we did not make the services yesterday..

Thinking of all of you Duane, Janet, Doug and Roger and your familys and Lamar.

“ My special love and sympathy to all of you, Janet, Duane and Simone, Doug and Peggy, Roger and Kim and to all of your children, who she loved so much and who were so attentive to her. Thank you all for your attention and care and love during the trying times. Lamar, thank you for the years of joy and fun you shared, traveling, dining out, visiting and camping. Also for your care during the last few years of difficulties and being there for her. I love Maxie and we had a good life, we were able to be together for many good times. God works in his time.
