R.I.P. Melanie haven't seen her in a while, but was a good friend in high school.

“ As a Step- brother living in a different state, Melanie and I didn't have the opportunity to grow very close. However, we spent a short time together when she came to live with us in Naples and made an indelible impression on me. It didn't take long for her to assume the roll as the big sister. She was easily a foot taller than me and she could "shot put" a 5 lb lead weight way farther than I could. Luckily I could run faster than her on account of sibling pranks and playing the role of the bratty younger brother. It didn't take long for her to find a group of friends that were as adventurous as her. Occasionally I got to hang with the big kids which was always cool. She introduced me to AC/DC which I will for ever be indebted. Sis, you will be missed. May you rest in peace, love you.
