“ Last night my amazing, kind, loving, sweet father left us on this earth. There are not enough words to express the depth of sorrow I feel. My dad was the absolute best. If you see any love and kindness in me is because of him. I know that there is so much of who I am is because of who he was. He loved deeply. He valued family, friendship and loyalty. He was a dedicated and dependable father and a husband. When I think of him, I think of safety and protection and the relief I always felt when he walked through the door. Everything would be ok if dad was there. He always knew what to do, how to help and he could fix anything. He loved his children, grandchildren and his wife fiercely and spent as much time as he could with every single one of them. His family was his world. He was a mentor, teacher, peace maker and a guide to everyone around him. He would feed you, make you laugh and tell the best stories. He was my best friend and always gave me the best advise in his best and worst days. He was my mom's constant companion for the last 48 years. We will never stop missing him. No amount of time would have been long enough, but I'm thankful for the time we were given with him and for the blessing that we had him in our lives. Thank you for being the best dad anyone could ask for.
