“ Nick, It was not your time. You still had so much more to do, so many hearts to touch. You made me laugh, your youth and your wild and crazy ways will be surely missed. I'm glad we had that summer together just hanging out and thanks for the $20 bucks. I will miss you and your All American Boy charm. Farewell until we meet again.

“ I am honored to have been able to share the years Nick and I were best friends. We share so many special memories together and this last year we shared our lives together. I loved him like I have never loved anyone else and I know he shared the same love for me. I truly am grateful for all of the wonderful memories him and I created together and only wish that we could have made many more. Its so amazing how many lives he touched and how many people will be affected by this horrible tragedy. You will be missed so much my love. I hold onto the fact that we shared a wonderful week before your passing and I will treasure the time we have spent together. I know your at peace and I can only say I will love you forever as long as I live and will wait until the day I am in your arms again!! Rest in peace my love!! Forever Yours, Carrie Ann

“ It’s been a long time, but that means nothing. Nick and I would’ve known each other anywhere. As kids that grew up together, Nick was one of my best friends and I’m certain many, many people can say that of him, because Nick was genuine. I have lots of memories that have come back to me in the days since he passed but I will focus on the last time I saw him, ten years ago. Our paths in life had already diverged but when I greeted him he gave me the best hug and we had some laughs as always. To Nick -“shorty,” Sarah Francis Garcia 💕💕
