

Ninoos Orahem

April 29, 1938 - November 28, 2025

Ninoos Orahem passed away peacefully at his home surrounded by his loved ones in Turlock, California, on November 28, 2025, at the age of 87. Born on April 29, 1938, in Urmieh, Iran, Ninoos embarked on a lifelong journey of healing and compassion after graduating from Tehran University School of Medicine.

Throughout his career as an urologist and surgeon, Ninoos worked in various hospitals and ran his own medical practice until his retirement in 2010. His dedication to medicine was paralleled by his commitment to doing good deeds.

Ninoos's kindness, generosity, and humility touched the lives of many. His passions were not confined to the realm of medicine. He was an avid mountain climber, a lover of reading and poetry, and had a knack for building and repairing things. His intellectual pursuits were complemented by his involvement in civic, charitable, and humanitarian organizations, where he continued to impact lives positively.

He will be deeply missed by his sisters Aniez, Terez, Marie, Helen, Hilda, and Stella. He also leaves behind his beloved extended family. He was preceded in death by his parents, Yaghoub and Youhieh.

A funeral service to honor and celebrate his life will be held at Turlock Funeral Home on Monday, December 15, 2025, at 10:00 a.m. Please join the family for a reception at the Assyrian American Civic Club following services. Ninoos's legacy of kindness and dedication to helping others will forever be remembered.
