“ Nira was my best friend for years ,while we were in Junior High school. We spent time together with mutual friends during school. On some weekends, we would go out together did simple things .We went to church,the flea market, we went out to eat at Ole Frijole, we would go to the mall. We were in 9th grade when we dressed up with our Halloween costumes and went trick or treating. I remember been at her house before Thanksgiving and watching her mom prep the turkey. Once, we had a Mother’s Day BBQ with both her mom and my mom. We were young Nd Happy.😊 Good memories!! 🙏🙏🙏🙏🙏 May you rest in peace my friend.🌷🌷🌷🌷 You left this world way to soon.

“ Dear mother-in-law,
I truly regret not telling you in life how much I admired you. You truly where an incredible warrior who only God knows how much you truly fought everyday to be with your family. I will always be thankful to you for your son Jose Ramirez. You raised him to be an incredible human being. Thank you for being an inspirational, strong, loving woman. I love you and I know that you are at peace with your dad.

Querida suegra,
Realmente lamento no haberte dicho en vida cuánto te admiraba. Realmente fuiste un guerrero increíble que solo Dios sabe cuánto luchaste todos los días para estar con tu familia. Siempre te estaré agradecido por tu hijo José Ramírez. Lo criaste para ser un ser humano increíble. Gracias por ser una mujer inspiradora, fuerte y amorosa. Te amo y sé que estás en paz con tu papá.
