“ I'm really heart broken by Nosisi's death, she's one person whom I was always close to, since we met in 1977 as refugees in Tanzania. Every weekend we would call each other and reminiscence about our lives as refugees and how far we've come. Nosisi was a very strong individual who was true to self and what she believed in. She never pretended to be something that she was not. Nosisi never compromised her principles, even if it meant that she would lose something. I loved her for being a sincere, strong and principled person. I feel like we've lost a true heroine. May her soul rest in peace.

“ With great sympathies to the Mbuli's, Nosisi was a great warrior and a courageous woman , a people's person, a sister to some of us, a fighter, great councillor , a person who opened her doors to anyone . Despite the great difficulties brought on by prolonged by her health and the grim prognosis she faced , she had faith, warmth , and a good sense of humor. She's in a peaceful state , pain free place. May all of you be comforted.

“ We will miss you but will always be with you in spirit and those whom you touched will always remember you.
Your voice, smile your reaching out to those who were in need we journey with you in your illness with love
You never complained, you were really a soldier.
You have payed a harsh price my sister, but now you are at peace.
And to the children; You know how strong your mom was, please stay strong and focused. We are here as family whenever you need us, Please pick up the phone and call and we will come along.
give you Psalm 23 "The Lord is my shepard I shall not want....."
