

Padam Bahadur

June 27, 1936 - April 28, 2013

Padam Bahadur passed away, Sunday, April 28, in Modesto. He was born in Kavanagasau, in the Fiji Islands, to Ram Narayan and Suruj Kuar. He worked as a farmer until he immigrated to the United States in 1987. Here he worked in food service at Doctor's Medical Center for seventeen years, retiring in 2004. Padam was an avid member of the local Hindu Temple and active in the Indian community.

Padam is preceded in death by his parents, two siblings, and his son-in-law, Anil Prasad. He is survived by his loving wife, Lila Bahadur, his children, Aneta Prasad, Ron Bahadur (Roshni), Dick Bahadur (Sudhin), Lalita Rai (Dan), and Kamal Bahadur (Irene), twelve grandchildren, three great-grandchildren, five brothers and five sisters, and many other dear family and friends.

Services will be held Thursday, May 2, 2013 at Turlock Funeral Home, 425 N. Soderquist Rd., in Turlock, at 11:00 a.m.

Tribute Wall

“ Padam Bahadur

January 28, 2023 at 09:01 AM

“ Tears can't be stopped as we think of Fuffa and his wonderful legacy. He will be missed and loved always. May his soul rest in peace and may all our family find comfort during this hard and sad time.

Julie & Family, Australia - April 30, 2013 at 12:00 AM

“ Our solemn prayers and heartfelt sympathy to the family and all the survivors of Padam. Rest in peace.

*Rey Mercado and Family
Modesto, California*

Rey Mercado - April 30, 2013 at 12:00 AM