“ I have had the privilege of knowing Paul for about three years. Paul was a man of impeccable integrity who stood up for his beliefs. Paul was a hard worker who took pride in his substantial accomplishments. He often spoke fondly of Debby and his little Maddie. Paul was a great provider who was proud of family and accomplishments. “ Debbie and Madeline may God bless you both with the strength and courage to get through this difficult time. Ive known Paul since my dad Tony began working for him back in 1985. He was a good man and loved his business. He gave me the opportunity to live at the dairy and for that I enjoyed my childhood playing around the dairy and his fields riding my bike on the roads. I will never forget the experience and I hope Madeline can enjoy the childhood I had on the dairy. God Bless. Elizabeth Marques.
