

Paul L. Larson

March 19, 1932 - October 29, 2022

Paul Larson, a lifetime resident of Turlock, passed away after a long illness at Alexander Hospice House surrounded by family. Paul was born to Paul and Dorothy Larson in Turlock, living his younger years on the family ranch. He and his wife, Rebecca “Becky,” were married on October 2, 1999 in Carson City, Nevada. In 1955 and 1956, Paul played football for the Fort Ord Warriors while in the Army. Paul’s connection with Cal’s Alumni Foundation, Pappy’s Boys, enabled him to spearhead a project that for several years took busloads of middle school kids from the valley to Cal to tour the Berkeley campus and to experience a collegiate football game. In addition to football, horses and team roping were a big part of Paul’s life. He was a lifetime member and past president of the Turlock Horsemen’s Club. He was a member of the Lutheran Church.
