

Pauline Gomez Garcia

February 21, 1950 - June 5, 2024

Pauline Gomez Garcia, beloved mother, grandmother, wife, sister, aunt and friend went home to our Lord on June 5, 2024 after a nine-year battle with breast cancer.

She passed in the comfort of her home in Turlock, California.

Pauline was born on February 21, 1950 in Fresno to Pablo and Josephine Gomez. The family later moved to Turlock where they owned and operated The Mexican Kitchen restaurant and Pablo's Club for more than 30 years.

She was a graduate of Turlock High School.

In May, 1999 Pauline married Joe Garcia at the church of Nazarene in Ceres, CA.

Over the years, among the jobs she held were as a school campus supervisor, an employee of the We Care Program and clerk at Walmart. She retired at the age of 65.

Most of her life was spent as a member of Harvest Christian Center in Turlock, but in her last years she attended The House in Modesto.

Pauline loved to dance, especially to the Golden Oldies, and was fond of cooking and swimming. But her most treasured moments, when she was at her happiest, was spending time with her grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her father, Pablo Gomez; mother, Josephine Gomez; brother, Mike Morrow and grandson Eddie Gonzales.

Pauline is survived by her husband, Joe Garcia; daughter, Olivia Ramirez; sons, Steve Perales and Rico Garcia; two step-daughters, Christina and Jessica; sisters, Christine Gomez, Patty Gomez Robledo, Linda Gomez Loya and Gloria Gomez Valverde; and brother Richard Gomez; 17 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.
