

Penna Lazar Eshoo

May 25, 1918 - April 5, 2011

Penna Lazar Eshoo, born May 25, 1918 went to be with the Lord on April 5, 2011. Penna was born in Julpashan, Iran. At the young age of 7 she and her family immigrated to the United States. Her family settled in New Brittan Connecticut until she graduated from New Brittan High School. In 1936, Penna and her mother moved to Turlock, CA after her fathers death and purchased a 60 acre farm and began their lives in Turlock farming almonds, grapes and walnuts. In 1953 Penna met her husband Elisha Eshoo and they wed. Penna was a devoted member of the Assyrian Church of the East, Mar Addai Parish for over 50 years, lifetime member of the Assyrian American Civic Club of Turlock and member of Bet-Nahrain Assyrian Cultural Center. She was a woman who helped so many people in need, her home was always open to everyone. A giving soul whos values were centered around God and her family, Penna was a strong person, funny, hardworking and a devoted Christian. She loved to entertain and welcome guests into her home. A beautiful woman who lived a happy, fulfilled life. She blessed so many through her goodness and we will always remember her strength, smarts and love for us. She is preceded in death by her husband, Elisha Eshoo and brother-in-law Isaac Eshoo. She is survived by her large and extended family who she will always hold a very special place in their heart. Visitation will be held from 5 to 7pm today at Turlock Funeral Home, 425 N. Soderquist Rd., Turlock. A funeral will be held at 10am on Friday, Apr. 8, 2011 at the Church of the East Mar Addai Parish, Turlock. Burial will follow at Turlock Memorial Park.
