

Phul Devi Parmanand

November 2, 1936 - January 15, 2025

Phul Devi was born on November 2, 1936, as one of eight children to Mr. Ram Newaj and Mrs. Lakh Pati in Lautoka, Fiji. In 1952, she married Mr. Parma Nand, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kuku Sardar, and together they made their home in Nacaci Ba, Fiji, where they raised their nine children.

After the passing of her husband, Phul Devi moved to Modesto, California, in 2000 to live with her son, Ashok Kumar, and daughter-in-law, Kanta Kumar.

Phul Devi was the heart and soul of her family—a constant source of love and strength that bound generations together. She dedicated her life to nurturing her children, guiding her grandchildren, and caring for all those she loved. Whether cooking a meal, sharing stories, or offering prayers, her unwavering devotion to family was reflected in every aspect of her life.

Phul Devi was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Mr. Parma Nand, and her son, Anil Kumar. She is survived by her sons, Uma Dat and Ashok Kumar, and her daughters, Sheela Nand, Shushila Kumar, Sharmila Chand, Lalita Prasad, Salita Dean, and Sushil Singh.

She is also cherished by her 21 grandchildren and 25 great-grandchildren.

We will always remember her as a devoted mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, aunt, and friend. Phul Devi was the very embodiment of love, grace, and kindness. Her legacy lives on in the countless lives she touched, the love she gave, and the wisdom she imparted. Though we will miss her deeply, we find comfort in knowing that her spirit will forever remain with us.
