

Plato G. Christy

September 9, 1932 - December 7, 2020

Plato G. Christy, 88, of Turlock, CA, passed away peacefully at his home on Monday, December 7th.

Born and raised in Turlock to George and Helen Christy, he graduated from Turlock High School and went on to attend Modesto Junior College. He proudly served in the US Army for a short time before finding his calling as a farmer.

A hardworking man, Plato worked as a grape and almond grower for 35 years before retiring in 1989. In his spare time, he enjoyed restoring old Ford T-Bird cars, gardening, welding and woodworking. Above all, he adored spending time with his grandchildren and enjoyed helping out at his church, the Annunciation Greek Orthodox Church, which he served as a board member for.

Plato married the love of his life, Aspasia (Sarrimanolis) Christy on June 24, 1962 in Fresno, CA. Along with his wife, he leaves behind his daughter Pamela Christy, son George Christy, 6 grandchildren and 5 great-grandchildren.

A visitation will be held from 2 to 4 p.m. on Friday, December 18, 2020, at Turlock Funeral Home, 425 N. Soderquist Rd., Turlock. A graveside service will be held on Monday at San Joaquin Valley National Cemetery in Santa Nella. Due to Covid restrictions, only immediate family will be allowed to attend the burial.

In Plato's honor, memorial donations can be made to the Annunciation Greek Orthodox Church, 313 Tokay Ave., Modesto, CA 95350; or to Community Hospice, 4368 Spyres Way, Modesto, CA 95350.

“ Plato, you have been missed in my checkout lines for too many years. You always brightened my days with your smile and humor. I am happy you have found your way home and at the same time sad for Aspasia, Pam and George who must miss you greatly.

Aspasia, Pam and George, life's memories are an amazing thing we are blessed with. I pray the memories you have of Plato will sustain you.
