

Rafael Machado Cervantes

July 16, 1987 - November 25, 2015

At the age of 28, Rafael left us to be with his heavenly father. Rafael was born in Turlock, CA. He graduated from Turlock High School and continued on to Merced Community College to complete his associates degree. He was a big family man. He loved his family very much and spent his off days with the family. He was full of life and always knew how to make you laugh. Rafael is survived by his parents, Orlanda and Rafael, and his three sisters, Christina, Jazmine, and Amy. Rafael will be forever with us in our hearts and memories. We love you. Rest easy.

“ Oh Rafael - so young. I so loved working with you when you struggled through your beginning English classes in Los Banos. I remember having long conversations about adoption when you were researching abortion for class. You brightened the library with your smile and your energy. I worked with you less at the LRC but I loved seeing you come in and our discussions about literature made me fall in love with the English of Shakespeare and Donne and Chaucer all over again. I will miss you!
