“ Bruce Lee is among the most acknowledged names within the planet and achieved so significantly in spite of residing an extremely brief lifestyle. His goal of breaking the bounds that acted has restricting components succeeded and started the genesis of quite a few hybrid martial arts. Lee did not develop into a seasoned martial artist overnight, his accomplishments are products of intensive Red Bottom Shoes and vigorous instruction coupled with appropriate diet.

“ I am so sorry to hear that Ray has passed on. I tried to call a little while back, but I am sure it was an old number. Glenn called me and told me that Ray had been sick for a long time and I feel bad for not having seen him when I was down there. But I have nothing but good memories and I feel blessed just to have known him We wish you the best-
