

Raymond Dean Kellogg

April 14, 1953 - December 20, 2015

Turlock resident, Raymond D. Kellogg passed away at home on Sunday, December 20, 2015. He was born April 14, 1953 in Charles City, IA to Wendell and Alaine Kellogg. He grew up in Iowa and enlisted in the United States Navy after high school. After completing his service, Ray moved to California. He was a dedicated, hard-worker and operated fork lifts for Sunnyside Farms for over 30 years.

After separating from his wife, Rosemary, Ray found his soul mate in Amanda Gurrola. They moved in together after a brief courtship and had been together ever since. Ray loved to collect pocket knives. Though he did not have many hobbies, he truly cherished spending time, comfortably at home, with his family, friends, and loved ones. He especially enjoyed watching UFC and football games on TV, and sleeping.

Ray is preceded in death by his parents, Wendell and Alaine. He is survived by his common-law wife Amanda Gurrola, his daughter, Heather Seal, two grandchildren, siblings, Bob, Carol, and Jean, and close friends, Kevin, Joseph, and brother-in-law Hector Gurrola. He is also survived by his many friends and co-workers at Sunnyside Farms, including Beverly and the girls of the HR department. They were always there for him and Amanda during his illness.

A memorial service will be held at 5:00 p.m. on Tuesday, January 5, 2016 at Turlock Funeral Home, 425 N. Soderquist Rd., in Turlock, with visitation time prior, starting at 3:00 p.m.

“ To Amanda, Heather, Carol, Jean, and Bob, I have many memories of Ray growing up in Charles City, We use to bowl together on the same junior league and we were even on the high school team that went to State, Ray was always the better bowler and can remember his big sweeping hook. Ray even show me how to drive his old car with the stick shift on the column. One night we went to the County fair and he drank a lemonade and then we went on the Ferris wheel, that was a mistake as Ray got sick and well he got very sick, he blamed it on the lemonade anyway. We had often thought what ever happen to Ray after high school and heard he had lived in California after he left the Navy. We are so happy that he had such a good life out there and he will surely be missed. We are so sorry for your loss and are sending our condolences.
