“ I remember Greg and I could get into so much trouble and we didn't even try. But one time we clogged the hose on her vacuum so bad there was no saving ourselves. She was hot and I mean hot but she didn't yell the look was enough. It ended with the both of us going to grandma's. Oh and we laughed about it for the rest of my visit.

“ Sharon and family. Lowell and I (Dottie) Hirsch Korn want to wish you our condolences in the loss of your mother Reba. We have such wonderful memories of her and family from Turlock community hospital days. Such a sweet friend and lots of laughs. We live in Reno now and was planning on coming to the service but an unexpected snow storm came in over the pass early this morning. Had a beautiful surprise when I was shopping in Savemart on day a few years ago and ran into she and Pieter. Blessings and love to all. We'll meet again in Glory. Lowell and Dottie Hirsch Korn
