“ Richard was a very dear cousin. Sending my sympathy to Dixie and family. He is now in Jesus arms and reunited with his parents and sister. When we all get to heaven--what a day of rejoicing that will be!!!

“ Our warmest condolences to Dixie and family. Richard was a kind man, a gentleman, and a wonderful neighbor. He was generous in spirit and thrived on seeing other people happy. We fondly remember one of the last times Richard was at our house singing Hymns. We'll never forget that special day; we all had a such wonderful time. Heaven gained another angel.

“ We are thankful for the privilege and blessing of traveling the road of life together, through joys and sorrows, as friends and family. We will always remember your humor, music, kindness and your whistling for Dixie. But most of all, your life was a shining and inspiring example of daily walking with God. You will be dearly missed and be forever in our hearts.
