

Robert Lee Terveen

June 13, 1952 - November 29, 2015

"Bob" was born June 13th, 1952 in Mitchell, South Dakota. He passed away November 29th, 2015 in Turlock, California from heart and health complications.

Bob graduated from Emery High School in 1970 (South Dakota) where he played basketball and football. After graduation, he moved to Turlock, California with his parents. Bob loved all sports, attended games, and collected sports memorabilia. He enjoyed reading and spending time with his family and friends.

Bob enlisted in the US Army (1972 - 1978) stationed at Fort Riley, Fort Ord and served duty in Korea. He was awarded the Marksman award and multiple medals. Bob married Karie Ladd from Turlock (1977-1983). He resided in the Turlock-Modesto area most of his life. He owned his concrete construction business which he retired from when his health declined.

He is survived by his father Harvey Terveen, his only son Bryce Terveen, daughter-in-law Heather Terveen, and his 3 granddaughters Reese, Sydney and Charlotte, his 2 sisters Joanne Holm and Lavonne Hall, his brother Jim Terveen, and many nieces and nephews. He is preceded in death by his mother Louise Terveen, and his brother Dennis Terveen.

Memorial service to be held at Turlock Memorial Park Chapel, 425 N. Soderquist Rd in Turlock on Saturday, Dec 12th at 12pm. Burial services will follow at the Emery Community Cemetery in South Dakota (date to be announced).
