

Roland Ferrari

October 10, 1960 - May 14, 2017

Roland Ferrari, 56, passed away peacefully at his home in Turlock, CA on May 14, 2017.

Roland was born in Turlock, CA on October 10, 1960 to Donald and Lorraine Ferrari, the youngest of four children. He was a longtime resident of the Ballico-Delhi area, attending Ballico-Cressey Middle School and graduating from Livingston High School in 1979.

In 1984, Roland married his wife, Edie Lowe of Turlock, CA and went on to have three beloved children of his own.

Roland's zeal for nature and the outdoors led him to follow in his father's footsteps and become an almond farmer. He spent his life working on the family ranch in Delhi and became the third generation of almond farmers within the Ferrari family. He eventually went on to manage and run the family business, as well as his own almond farm in Ballico. This was one of his greatest passions in life, and something he delighted in every single day.

In his spare time, Roland adored spending time outdoors and surrounding himself with nature as much as possible. He was a lover of music, photography, books, technology, and loved watching the San Francisco Giants play. His greatest devotion, however, was for his family.

Roland was a kind and genuine spirit and he will forever be missed by all who cared for him.

He is survived by his beloved wife of 33 years, Edie Ferrari; his son, Jesse; his daughters, Victoria and Sofia; as well as his sisters, Linda (Oly) Fruge, Nancy (Don) Hamaguchi, and Judy (Myron) Larson.

A Memorial Service will be held at 11 a.m. on Saturday, June 3 at Turlock Funeral Home, 425 N. Soderquist Rd., Turlock. A graveside service will immediately follow at Turlock Memorial Park.
