“ God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be. So He put His arms around you and whispered "come to me." With tearful eyes we watched you, and saw you pass away. Although we loved you dearly, we could not make you stay. A golden heart stopped beating, hardworking hands at rest. God broke our hearts to prove to us, He only takes the best.
You will never be forgotten.

“ My Aunt Sunni(this is how i spell her name) is and always will be an amazing woman. Aunt Sunni is the one who help me turn to the Almighty. When she turn to the Almighty her life became peaceful and full. I realized that my life can become that peaceful just looking at her. Aunt Sunni will be so missed by everyone. She touched so many lives and her presence will always be with us. I love you and I will always miss you! Mala

“ To my sisters family,
I know what you are going through and me and my family are here for you during this difficult time. Always know that we love you very much. Time will heal your pain, but you will never forget all the good times of your mother/wife. May she rest in peace....

“ My heart goes out to my brother's Fran, Danny, Clarence and Prem Uncle. I will miss Sunny Auntie dearly. These last couple of weeks have brought back some great memories of days gone by with her. Those mornings when I would crash with you guys at the Colusa house and she would cook us pancakes were the best!! Rest in Peace Auntie!

“ Nana - Thank you for accepting me into your family with such warmth and love. I will forever miss your smile and big hug. Robert and I have so much love and respect for your wonderful family and are blessed that we are apart of it. Know that we will always be there for them, especially in this time of sorrow as source of constant love and support. I truly believe that this is merely a brief parting, as we will all be together again. And what a glorious time that will be! Love, The Sharma Family
