

Saul Sidney "Sid" Cannon

December 13, 1953 - January 22, 2022

Saul Sidney "Sid" Cannon, a resident of Turlock, passed away in Modesto on Saturday, January 22nd at the age of 68.

Sid was born and raised in Turlock. He attended Sacred Heart School and Central Catholic High School before graduating from Stanislaus State.

Sid was disabled, but he never let that stop him from succeeding. He worked as a Job Coach/ARC and volunteered as the manager at Radio Station CSUS. He loved music, baseball (he was a "True Blue" Dodger fan), football (Go Raiders!), and loved to play backgammon.

Sid was preceded in death by his father, Paul Cannon; his mother, Victoria (Jennie) Alahverdi; and his two brothers, David Cannon and Paul (Juni) Cannon.

He is survived by his son, Joseph Allen Cannon; daughter, Kelsea Maree Cannon; son-in-law, Ismail Qassoumi; granddaughter, Nina Sophia; sister-in-law, Becky Cannon; and many cousins.

Services for Sid have been handled privately. A Celebration of Life will be held at a later date.

Tribute Wall

“ Saul Sidney "Sid" Cannon

January 28, 2023 at 09:01 AM

“ It was great having you as a friend for almost 50 years and having the best of times with you, going to MLB games, an array of rock concerts, and hanging out in Santa Cruz, Lake Tahoe, and 17 Mile Drive. You're the only one I know to be permanently banned from Bull Graham Concerts—except for me, of course. Even when we were 300 miles apart during recent years we still managed to text each other during almost every Dodger game. I'll miss you but will rest easier knowing you're in Blue Heaven. Condolences to Kelsea and Joe.

Steve Fjeldsted - February 15, 2022 at 02:46 PM