“ Shimmy came to visit us three years ago and we had so much fun. He lived life to the fullest and enjoyed every minute. He truly loved life...he enjoyed good times, music, food and family. Klodette, Rick, our children and I loved having him be a part of our family. Shimmy loved my cooking and he talked about the homemade breads I had made when he was visiting us.

Shimmy was very close to our mom and he shared many fond memories of our mom Neli. Both Klodette and I felt like a piece of our mom was here with us when Shimmy came to our home. We love him and I know in my heart that my mom whom he dearly loved and his own mom, my dear aunt Betty, are all united along with his beloved brother uncle Sam. Though Klodette and I will miss him, I know he is going to enjoy his eternal life with our Lord, Jesus, and surrounded by his family.
