

Tony L. Alvares

April 5, 1942 - February 15, 2023

Born in Santa Barbara, Terceira, Acores, April 5, 1942 to Joe and Maria Alvares, Tony migrated to California with his family when he was 6 years old. He attended school in Hilmar and graduated in 1962. He married Gerry Pettit in 1963 and had three children, Steven, Rosie and Chris. He was proud of his Portuguese heritage and worked very hard to build his life of a dairyman. He enjoyed being involved with the Stevinson Pentecost Association and serving as their president in 1979.

Tony met Linda Hines and they married in 1994. They enjoyed their years together and time spent traveling.

Tony never met a stranger and was always willing to enjoy a conversation with someone over a cocktail.

Tony was preceded in death by his parents, Joe and Maria Alvares; brothers Joe and Eddie Alvares, and wife Linda. He is survived by his children Steven (Amy), Rosie (John Potter), Chris (Kim); grandchildren Kayla (Travis) Butler, Ethan (Aubree), Christopher, Evyn, Abigail, Haileybrook; great grandchildren Jaxson and Journey Butler, Graceyn Galvan; brother John Alvares; 4 nieces and 5 nephews.

A memorial service will be held Friday, March 3, 2023, 10:30 a.m. at Turlock

Funeral Home. Following the service, Tony will be interred at Turlock Memorial Park.
