

Udaykumar Inamdar

May 8, 2025

Udaykumar Inamdar, a resident of Riverbank, California, passed away in May 2025, in Riverbank. He was born in 1945 in Ahmedabad, India, where he was also raised.

Mr. Inamdar earned a Bachelor's degree in Mechanical Engineering from Gujarat University in India and pursued graduate studies toward a Master's degree in Mechanical Engineering at the NYU Tandon School of Engineering, formerly known as Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute.

In 1974, he married his beloved wife, Leena, in Mumbai, India. Over the course of his career as a mechanical engineer, Mr. Inamdar contributed to major companies in the defense industry and to prominent American universities. His work included designing optical guidance systems for missiles and developing telescopes for astronomical observatories and satellites. He retired in 2016.

Beyond his professional accomplishments, Mr. Inamdar had a deep interest in politics, economics, and current events. He was an avid reader and enjoyed photography. He also served as President of the Indian Society of Sarasota, Florida, and held leadership roles with the Indian Society of Reading, Pennsylvania.

He is survived by his wife, Leena; his sons, Utpal (Roseline) and Peenak (Heather); his granddaughter, Isipho; his brothers, Nayan and Bharat; and his sisters, Kishori and Shobna.

A funeral service will be held on Monday, May 19, 2025, at 10:00 a.m. at Turlock Funeral Home in Turlock, California.
