

Violet Sarmast

August 24, 1937 - September 1, 2024

Violet Sarmast, our beloved mother, passed away peacefully on September 1, 2024, at the age of 87, following a brief illness.

Born on August 24, 1937, in Kermanshah, Iran, Violet moved to Tehran as a teenager. After completing high school, She earned a degree in English Literature, a testament to her love for learning. She found her calling as a teacher, a profession She excelled in until the birth of her daughter, Yvette. Following a brief break to focus on motherhood, Violet returned to teaching when Yvette began kindergarten. Her dedication to education continued until her husband's career with the National Iranian Oil Company led the family to southern Iran, where they lived for six years before migrating to the United States. They made their home in America for the past 45 years.

Violet was a devoted wife to her husband, Edmond, for over 59 years, a union marked by love, faith, and a deep bond. She deeply cherished their daughter, Yvette, and her son-in-law, Gerry, who held a special place in her heart. Violet was known for her boundless love for her family and her unshakeable faith in God, which guided her through life. She had a vibrant sense of humor and a fun-loving nature, making her a joy to be around. Her warmth, laughter, and love of life left an indelible mark on everyone.

Her passing leaves a profound void in the hearts of her daughter Yvette, her son-in-law Gerry, and all those whose lives she touched, including extended family and friends. Though Violet is no longer with us, her legacy of love, compassion, and faith will live on through the countless prayers and care she gave to others. She will be deeply missed and never forgotten. We take comfort in knowing that she is in the presence of her savior, reunited with her beloved husband, parents and brothers, all whom preceded her.

A memorial service in her honor will be held on September 17th, 2024, at Turlock Funeral Home, in Turlock, California. In lieu of flowers, the family would ask that consideration be given to making a gift in Violet's memory to St. John Assyrian EPC, in Turlock.
