“ My heart is so heavy loosing you! We get through each day but I don't know how we do it! It was so hard watching you deteriorate and you never complained. I don't know how you kept from it. You enjoyed each visitor that came and you were always so great at managing your time with each one. When Ceres PD showed we were in shock as Erin and I cried; you were all smiles and shaking everyones hands. Honey I miss you and I'm trying to go on, it's difficult because you are not with us. Heaven has a great man and you have great kids! We will all see you again one day - our love is always with you!
