“ I went to school with Bill's daughter Deann...so every time he saw me at church he would come over give me a hug and then she'd a few tears talking about her. Bill was a nice Godly man ...we will see him in heaven one day!

“ *Uncle Bill, was a very special Great Uncle to me! He always would take the time when visiting Alberta to come to our home for a meal and visit! One of my favourite memories will be when I was able to go to the original Tym homestead in Beauvallon and walk around with him as he told us stories from when he was young. What I will miss most about him is his laughter, smile and gentle caring spirit. He truly cared how I was doing. Fortunately I have many memories of Uncle Bill spanning over the years, and I will hold these close to my heart until we meet again.
All my love to your family, you are in my prayers,
