

Wilma Jean Simpson

October 5, 1927 - July 11, 2018

Wilma Jean Simpson passed away peacefully on Wednesday, July 11, in Turlock, CA. She was 90 years old.

Wilma was born in Kansas on October 5, 1927 to Alexander and Bessie (Fowler) Edwards. She moved to Missouri as a young girl and lived there until her move to California in 1956, where she resided in Port Hueneme for many years. After briefly living in West Fork, Arkansas for two years, she returned to California where she lived in the Fillmore, Ceres, and Turlock communities. For many years, Wilma worked as a Psychiatric Technician. Upon the birth of her son, Phillip, Wilma chose to be a homemaker and devote herself fully to her family. Among her many hobbies, Wilma was an avid gardener and a talented seamstress. In her spare time, she especially loved playing word games, especially crossword puzzles.

Wilma was predeceased by her husband, Delbert L. Simpson and her son, Phillip A. Simpson. She is survived by her daughter, Angela J. Majka of Casa de Ribeira, Terçeira, Azores and her son, Kent Randles of Portland, Oregon. Per the family's request, private services will be held.

Memorial donations can be made in Wilma's honor to the Community Hospice Foundation Annual Fund at www.give.hospiceheart.org.

“ Wilma was a wealth of family information. I was so happy. When I found her on FB. I don't remember ever seeing her, but she remembered me as a small child. We visited quite a bit on emails and agreed on a lot of FB posts. She was a very sweet and very intelligent and interesting cousin. Loved her.

“ Wilma was a very special lady. Being able to talk with her over the last few years has meant the world to our family. She was a young girl when my mother was born and stayed with her a lot. Cousin Wilma was a great cousin and good friend.
