

Wilton Tamrazi

September 29, 1939 - October 7, 2025

Wilton Tamrazi passed away on October 7, 2025, in Turlock, California. Born on September 29, 1939, in Urmia, Iran.

Wilton worked as an air traffic controller for many years. He was the lead controller at Mehrabad International Airport in Iran and later as a lead technician at Zycon in San Jose, before retiring in 2003. He was a graduate of the University of Tehran.

A devoted member of the Assyrian Church of the East, Wilton's faith played a significant role in his life. He married Margrit Afarin on July 1, 1972, in Tehran, Iran, and together they raised their two children, Anobel and Benita Tamrazi. His family and friends knew him as a loving and dedicated family man, who enjoyed gardening, taking walks, and spending time with his loved ones.

He is survived by his wife, Margrit; his son, Anobel; and his daughter, Benita.

A funeral service will be held on Saturday, October 25, 2025 at 10:00 a.m. at Turlock Funeral Home. Following the service, Wilton will be laid to rest at Turlock Memorial Park.
