Obituary for Youlyous K. Lelham

Youlyous K. Lelham, born on February 28, 1947, in Urmieh, Iran, passed away after a short battle with heart disease on April 8, 2025. He spent his early years in Urmieh with his parents, the late Malek and Anna, his brother, and three sisters. As a boy, he studied in a church monastery with aspirations of becoming a Catholic priest.

The family later moved to Tehran, where Youlyous worked as a geotechnical engineer. In 1988, he married his wife, Nahrin. Together, they relocated to Germany, where their children, Sweeny and Steven, were born. In 1993, the family moved to Turlock, California, where Youlyous continued his education at Modesto Junior College and worked as an agricultural lab inspector.

He was a man of quiet strength and deep faith who found joy in gardening, walking, attending church, and most of all, spending time with his family. He is survived by his beloved wife Nahrin, his children Sweeny (Martin) and Steven, and his cherished granddaughters Sophia, Kiana, Eliana, and Liliana.

Youlyous will be remembered for his gentle spirit, contagious smile, devotion to family, and unwavering faith.
